

" And I heard a voice from Heaven saying,
"Write this down: Blessed are those who die in the Lord from now on. Yes, says the Spirit, they are blessed indeed, for they will rest from their hard work; for their good deeds follow them! " Revelation 14:13

Reflections Of Life

Mother Ineva Cook Bell was welcomed into the Kingdom of Heaven March 28, 2018. She was 72 years old and resided in Cross Plains, TN.

She passed early Wednesday morning peacefully, in her home with loved ones near her side. Ineva Cook Bell was born December 16, 1945 to the late Vernon Samuel and Lillie Marie Cook of Cross Plains, TN. She was the third of eight children. She graduated from Bransford High School, Class of 1964. She was a dependable, hard worker at Electrolux in Springfield, TN from 1976 to 2018, performing multiple jobs. In the year of 1982 she was united in Holy Matrimony to her beloved husband, James Edward Bell. In Ineva's 72 years on this earth, she was a loving wife, daughter, mother, grandmother, sister and friend. She professed her love for Christ at an early age at Bridgehill Missionary Baptist Church in Springfield, TN under Reverend Henry Taylor where she was a faithful member for many years. Later on she became a faithful member of Friendship Missionary Baptist Church of Cross Plains, TN under Reverend Arneal Strain. It was there she became a Mother of the church and sang in the Women's Chorus.

In her free time she loved nothing more than to travel with her husband and family or sit down, relax and do a good puzzle. Ineva was a kind and gentle spirit, a spirit which is rare to come upon and when you were in her presence you felt it. She was a woman of good faith and lived for serving Christ. She set upon this earth and accomplished exactly what the great Lord had called her to do, and she did it in grace, dignity and class. Her love, smile, sense of humor and laughter will never be forgotten.

Because of Christ's victory for us, God assures us in His word that this separation is not permanent for believers in Christ. For one day there will be a reuniting of believing loved ones in heaven, never to be separated again. Even now, Ineva is not only enjoying fellowship with the Lord, but with other members of her family that have gone on before her.

Preceded in her death was her parents, Vernon Samuel and Lillie Marie Cook; daughter, Theresa Mosley and sisters, Lillie Marie Cook, Earnistine Cook and Geneva Groves.

She leaves to cherish her memories her loving devoted husband of 35 years, James Edward Bell. Sons, Raymond O'Neal Batchelor (Esther) and Chris Bell. Daughters, Jackie Payne, Dometra Partee (Irvin) and Victoria Bell. Brothers, Ernest Cook (Annie), William Cook (Betty Jo) and Nathaniel Cook (Florence). Sister, Diane Bell (Paul), and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins. As well as her very close friends Sue Groves, Margret Pulliam and loving Electrolux Family.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the day, and the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long, and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared—Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take, and each must go alone.
It's all part of the makers plan, a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds—
Miss me, but let me go.
